Hi D@D Volunteers!

What does the handsome fellow on the right have in common with Dressage at Devon volunteers? Well, his name is Accolades, and accolades are exactly what our wonderful volunteers have been receiving!

Our committee members have reported to me that spectators, competitors, and even judges lavished praise on our volunteers this year.

Here's an excerpt from a letter Breed Show Judge Carolin Walz sent to our President Lori Kaminski, Show Manager Dianne Boyd, and Hospitality Chair Marilyn Duer:

Accolades, my 25 YO Dutch Warmblood.

I can't say enough about the volunteers, the ringmasters (a hoot at times, especially in the rain), the scribes, the scores, the gatekeepers, etc.; I'm especially impressed how far some of them traveled to be part of the Devon experience.

*Best regards to you all,
Carolin Walz*

I couldn't have said it better myself. You all went above and beyond to make sure everyone at Dressage at Devon had a positive experience; and for that, I can't thank you enough. You were prompt, courteous, helpful and very good at your jobs. You make my job a joy!

I'm looking forward to seeing you all again at D@D next year. In the meantime, please keep in mind that with the 2015 World Meeting of Families will be in Philly the exact same days as Dressage at Devon, Sept. 22 - 27.

We are recommending you book your hotel rooms NOW. Let me know if you'd like to find a roommate, I'll start a list of contacts for other volunteers looking to share. This is likely to be especially helpful for 2015 with the huge strain expected on availability.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions or comments.

Thanks again,
Penny
